I have the honour to inform you that the lists of apparatus and Chemicals &c required for the Central College which are submitted to Government for sanction contain approximate value of articles to be ordered, taken from available catalogue which grow out of date very soon excluding freight and other incidental charges Whenever there is any difference in cost between the lists sanctioned by Government and the invoices of firms after the good are received the Comptroller objects to pass the bills and insists upon the fresh sanction of Government for the difference This has caused much inconvenience and delay in making payment to the firms concerned In the circumstances I request that Government may be pleased to authorise the Comptroller to admit such differenc in the cost of articles and the incidental charges, provided the budget provision is not exceeded without fresh sanction of Government
